Re: RESPONSE TO:

NOTICE OF DEBTORS' NINTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CERTAIN (I) LATE CLAIMS AND (II) LATE 503(B) (9) CLAIMS

CLAIM #11677

CLAIMANT'S NAME: BEAN, PATRICIA A.
11734 Chisholm Trail
Victorville, CA 92392-9277

AMOUNT OF CLAIM: $105.00

EXPLANATION FOR
AMOUNT OF CLAIM: Stock Purchased before the company gave up

STATEMENT: How late was my claim? When was the cut-off date? If it was late, here's why: I am a HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONAL, employed at a large county hospital where patient care is provided in a 373 bed trauma facility, where lives are at stake and life-saving treatments are provided. I am also 56-1/2 years old. I am tired at night. I go home, go to bed, and try to catch up on my mail on the weekend. Things unfortunately get overlooked, which is probably why my claim was late.

I believed in Circuit City, and in their ability to come back from reorganization, so I bought some stock. If you want to disallow a piddly $105.00 claim, I guess then you'll disallow it. Good luck.
